Re: The Carol McGregor CLC Disability Rights Award

Greetings,

Nominations are once again open for the Carol McGregor CLC Disability Rights Award.

The CLC created this award to recognize the outstanding contributions of a worker with a disability who has made an impact in their union and/or the community by promoting and defending the rights of persons with disabilities.

The award is given annually and announced on December 3, the International Day of Persons with Disabilities. You may read the biographies of last year's winners here: <http://www.canadianlabour.ca/human-rights-and-equality/carol-mcgregor-clc-disability-rights-award>.

Attached is the nomination form. We encourage you to distribute it widely in your organization. It will also be available on the CLC website. Nominations will be accepted until Friday, November 1, 2013.

Any union member or organization may nominate a candidate, and I encourage you to spread the word and send in nominations. This is a wonderful opportunity to profile how unions promote fairness for workers with disabilities and to recognize the outstanding contributions of a worker with a disability who has made an impact in their union and/or the community by promoting and defending the rights of persons with disabilities.

In solidarity,

Ken Georgetti
President
Attach.
